St. Veronica

Veronica is the woman with the issue of blood whom the Lord healed. "And, behold, a woman, which was diseased with an issue of blood 12 years, came behind Him, and touched the hem of His garment" (St. Matthew 9:20). Out of gratitude to the Lord her Healer, Veronica ordered a statue of the Lord Jesus be made for her before which, she prayed to God. According to tradition, this statue was preserved until the reign of Emperor Julian the Apostate who altered the statue into an idol of Zeus. This is one of the rarest instances that statues of saints were used in the Eastern Church. As is known, the latter became a common practice in the Western Church. St. Veronica remained faithful to the Faith of Christ until death and died peacefully.

Welcome!

To Our Guests:

While we are not yet in formal inter-communion with other faith traditions, we have much respect for their rites of worship and sanctuaries of prayer. In our tradition, Holy Communion is open only to those Orthodox Christians who are in good standing with the Church and have prepared themselves by prayer, fasting and a recent confession. Please do not be offended by this if you are not an Orthodox Christian or in good standing with the Church. We welcome you to our church and invite you to receive a blessing and partake of the blessed bread at the end of the Divine Liturgy.

*The weather is always very warm during the summer months. While we need to dress comfortably because of this please remember that shorts or above-the-knee attire, strapless garments, "spaghetti" strap garments, sleeveless or "tanktop" type garments, and tight-fitting, open or low-cut garments are not appropriate, especially for men, women and teenagers. It has always been our tradition to dress modestly and without drawing attention to oneself. Thank you.

A Message from the Parish Council on the Corona Virus

Dear Parishioners,

St. Basil has always been a good citizen of Metairie and Jefferson Parish. The Lord has blessed us with no active cases of the corona virus. We have acted cautiously, made our weekly worship available through live-streaming on the internet and provided additional sanitary measures. Sadly, the virus seems to be taking another swing at the community. Our Governor and Parish President have asked us to take additional and stricter precautions. Starting on Sunday, July 5, we are asking that all persons wear a facemask in church or in the parish hall. The only exceptions are the priest, the subdeacon, the acolytes and choir members during the liturgy when their duties require it. In addition, we ask that parishioners in the pews sit 6 feet apart unless they are members of the same family. We will have a limited supply of facemasks if you did not bring your own. Thank you for cooperation—Rob Booms, Chairman, Parish Council.

Orthodox Thoughts from Theo, the Parish Possum

Possums only live about two years. In our short lives we raise our young ones and play our part in cleaning up bugs and snakes. We believe that God has a good place for us after we die because we don't sin. But, from our perch under the altar, we heard someone say that when people die, they have to go through 20 or 22 aerial tollhouses to account for their sins. So I crept over to the Parish library to learn more. I read that the Orthodox fathers, such as St. John Chrysostom and St. John Climacus, say that, after death, you must be examined on whether you still cling to your sins. At each tollhouse, devils will challenge you while guardian angels offer up a defense. Modern Orthodox scholars, such as Father Hopko, believe that there are no physical tollhouses in the sky and that references to them are merely allegorical. However, there is no question that Orthodox theology holds that after a person dies, she or he must still intentionally reject the sins of their lifetime. That's why Orthodox people pray for the dead. That's why God calls you to purify yourselves from passions and sins as much as possible before your soul departs from the body. Then the passage through the "tollhouses" will be easier and the soul will be at peace and prepared for the final judgment. —God bless all, Theo
