St. Danilo, Archbishop of Serbia

Danilo was the son of wealthy and God-loving parents. In his youth he was given a good upbringing. King Milutin took him to his court, but out of great love for God he fled and was tonsured a monk in the Monastery of Konèulsk near the Ibar. Later, he was the abbot of the Monastery of Hilandar [Mount Athos] and suffered much from the plundering Latin Crusaders. He was the Bishop of Banja, then of Hum, and finally the Archbishop of Serbia. From beginning to end, he was a strict ascetic and had the special gift of tears. He made peace between Kings Dragutin and Milutin, and later between Milutin and Stefan of Deèani. He fought fervently against the Latins as well as the Bogomils. Under his supervision, the Monasteries of Banja and Deèani were built, and he restored and built many other churches. He wrote the genealogy of the Serbian kings and saints. Untiring in his service to God to the end of his life, he entered peacefully into rest on the night between the 19th and 20th of December, 1338, during the reign of Tsar Du an. Danilo was a great hierarch, a great ascetic, a great laborer and a great patriot.

The Sunday before the Nativity of Christ

Welcome!

To Our Guests:

While we are not yet in formal inter-communion with other faith traditions, we have much respect for their rites of worship and sanctuaries of prayer. In our tradition, Holy Communion is open only to those Orthodox Christians who are in good standing with the Church and have prepared themselves by prayer, fasting and a recent confession. Please do not be offended by this if you are not an Orthodox Christian or in good standing with the Church. We welcome you to our church and invite you to receive a blessing and partake of the blessed bread at the end of the Divine Liturgy.

In our tradition... the church temple is a house of prayer. Upon entering it, please refrain from unnecessary conversation before, during and after church services, most especially during the Divine Liturgy from the time of the consecration of the Gifts until the last person has received the Eucharist. At the end of the Divine Liturgy, please come quietly forward to receive a piece of the antidoron and exit the church temple without talking. During coffee hour in the Church Hall is the appropriate place to exchange personal greetings and converse with one another. May God bless your reverence and piety.

A Message from the Parish Council at Year's End

Dear Parishioners,

As we continue to cope with the Covid virus, we are coming to the end of 2020. We have had a stable year financially even when attendance was lower than usual. The Lord continues to bless our Parish with no outbreaks of the virus. We have a large catechumen class and have visitors who are actively considering joining our Parish. We have also come through several hurricanes without significant damage. As we count our blessings, please remember your pledge to St. Basil. If you are behind in your giving, we would much appreciate it if you could catch up by the end of the year. May you have a blessed Nativity season—Rob Booms, Chairman of the Parish Council.

Orthodox Thoughts from Theo, the Parish Possum

The possum family under the altar has heard that St. Basil is getting a church bell! We are quite excited about this. Bells were first rung in the Orthodox church at the Hagia Sophia in Constantinople in the year 865. Our Orthodox possum relatives in Russia tell us that churches there have used bells since 988. The largest liturgical bell in the world is there. It weighs 445,000 pounds. Called the “Tsar Bell,” it sits at the Kremlin in Moscow. St. Basil’s bell weighs approximately 600 pounds. Since it is over 100 years old, it will need to be cleaned and a place for it will have to be prepared. Like all church bells in the Eastern church, the dapper strikes a stationary bell (the bell itself does not swing as in the Western church). While Fr. Peter has not decided at what times it will be rung, such a bell is typically used at the beginning and end of the liturgy and when the Holy Gifts are consecrated. Jefferson Parish has no restrictions on when church bells can be rung, but St. Basil will respect its human and animal neighbors early in the morning and late at night. The possums look forward to joining in the making of a joyful noise to the Lord! Blessings to all—Theo

Spiritual Counsels...

"The heart of the virtuous man contemplates kind actions; the mouth of wicked men spews out malice." – Prov. 15:28

Today's Ushers: Mihai Leustean. Next Week: Greg Lindley.

Today's coffee hour: Team 3. Thank you. Next Sunday: Team 4.

A-Peal for the Bell...

The bell was originally used in the National Shrine of St. Anna in the Tremé neighborhood of New Orleans during the 19th century and early part of the 20th century. Please consider contributing to the cost of the bell and its installation. Any gifts should be marked "Church Bell". You are also invited to several upcoming fundraising lunches and hope that you can attend. —Rob Booms, Chairman of the Parish Council

The Bookstore Bee

This month in the bookstore, we would like to bring attention to a variety of items we have in stock for the Nativity season, from Christmas cards and ornaments to beautiful tapestry bookmarks, prayer ropes and children's books. We have something for everyone's gift giving or stocking stuffer needs. Join us in the church hall after liturgy and browse around!

ANNOUNCEMENTS

The Advent Fast began Saturday, November 15th, and is divided into two periods. The first period is Nov. 15 – Dec. 19, with the traditional fasting discipline observed (no meat, poultry, dairy, eggs, fish, alcohol and oil). There is an allowance, however, for alcohol and oil on Tuesdays and Thursdays, and an allowance for alcohol, oil and fish on Saturdays and Sundays. The second period is Dec. 20–24, with the traditional fasting discipline observed. There is an allowance, however, for alcohol and oil only on Saturday and Sunday.

Please be advised that our teams for coffee hour have changed. Our new teams will start the first Sunday of December. If you have any questions please feel free to speak with Tania Russell.

The Parish Council is scheduled to have their December meeting today after Divine Liturgy. All Council members please attend.

Church calendars, house blessing forms, pledge forms and boxes of offering envelopes for 2021 for each family in the parish are now available in the dining room of the church hall. Please be sure to get yours this Sunday.

As of Dec. 4, 2020, 44 pledges were received for 2020 totaling $86,950. The donations for November 2020 totaled $14,278.25. The expenses were $11,058.08, for an end-of-month balance of $27,606.19. Thank you.
