The Sunday Before The Holy Cross

Welcome!

To Our Guests:

While we are not yet in formal inter-communion with other faith traditions, we have much respect for their rites of worship and sanctuaries of prayer. In our tradition, Holy Communion is open only to those Orthodox Christians who are in good standing with the Church and have prepared themselves by prayer, fasting and a recent confession. Please do not be offended by this if you are not an Orthodox Christian or in good standing with the Church. We welcome you to our church and invite you to receive a blessing and partake of the blessed bread at the end of the Divine Liturgy.

In our tradition... the church temple is a house of prayer. Upon entering it, please refrain from unnecessary conversation before, during and after church services, most especially during the Divine Liturgy from the time of the consecration of the Gifts until the last person has received the Eucharist. At the end of the Divine Liturgy, please come quietly forward to receive a piece of the antidoron and exit the church temple without talking. During coffee hour in the Church Hall is the appropriate place to exchange personal greetings and converse with one another. May God bless your reverence and piety.

A Message from the Parish Council

Dear Parishioners, as we anticipated in the budget, our new property insurance premiums are going to exceed $40,000 during the next 12 months. The premiums are paid quarterly and will put a strain on our ability to pay for the regular monthly expenses of approximately $10,000. As we enter the summer months, when our income is generally less, please assist us by keeping up your regular pledge payments. Thank you for your generous support of the Parish. We are confident that the Lord will provide for our needs with your assistance, as always--Rob Booms.

Orthodox Thoughts from Theo, the Parish Possum

A bearded St. Basil looks upon us from his icon in the iconostasis and from another icon behind the altar. Our patron saint lived during the fourth century in Cappadocia, now in Turkey. St. Basil became a monk in 356 A.D. and later a Bishop. He wrote extensively, including the Divine Liturgy which we use on feast days, Sundays in Great Lent and on his commemoration day, January 1. St. Basil was a famous preacher, known for his care of the needy. He is referred to as St. Basil “the Great” because of his authoritative teaching of the doctrines of the Church. Much of his life was spent fighting the Arian heresy, which contended that Christ was not divine. He was known for his strong defense of the theology reflected in the Nicene Creed. Always in poor health and depicted as very serious in his icons, yet he was optimistic, tender, and even playful. However, he did not waver in his commitment to the poor: “At this very moment, what prevents you from giving? Are not the needy near at hand? Are your barns not already full? Is not your heavenly reward waiting? Is not the commandment crystal clear? The hungry are perishing, the naked are freezing to death, the debtors cannot breathe, and will you put off showing mercy until tomorrow? Make your brothers and sisters sharers of your wealth; give to the needy today what rots away tomorrow.” --- Theo

Spiritual Counsels...
