The Venerable New Martyrs Paisius and Habakkuk

Paisius was abbot of the Travna Monastery near Čačak in Serbia, and Habakkuk was his companion and deacon. As Christians, both were impaled on stakes by the Turks on Kalemegdan in Belgrade on December 17, 1814. Carrying his stake through the streets of Belgrade, the courageous Habakkuk sang. When his mother begged him with tears to embrace Islam in order to save his life, this wonderful soldier of Christ replied to her: "My mother, thank you for your milk, but for your counsel I thank you not: A Serb is Christ's; he rejoices in death.

Welcome!

To Our Guests:

While we are not yet in formal inter-communion with other faith traditions, we have much respect for their rites of worship and sanctuaries of prayer. In our tradition, Holy Communion is open only to those Orthodox Christians who are in good standing with the Church and have prepared themselves by prayer, fasting and a recent confession. Please do not be offended by this if you are not an Orthodox Christian or in good standing with the Church. We welcome you to our church and invite you to receive a blessing and partake of the blessed bread at the end of the Divine Liturgy.

In our tradition... the church temple is a house of prayer. Upon entering it, please refrain from unnecessary conversation before, during and after church services, most especially during the Divine Liturgy from the time of the consecration of the Gifts until the last person has received the Eucharist. At the end of the Divine Liturgy, please come quietly forward to receive a piece of the antidoron and exit the church temple without talking. During coffee hour in the Church Hall is the appropriate place to exchange personal greetings and converse with one another. May God bless your reverence and piety.

A Message from the Parish Council

Dear parishioners, as we plan for a new year, we ask you to consider the level of your commitment to St. Basil. We face increasing property insurance premiums and higher medical insurance costs for Father Peter and his family. In addition, we need more financial and human resources to build up our parish if we are going to give birth to a Northshore mission. Let us pray to the Lord for guidance as we make our pledge to further the ministry of St. Basil—Rob Booms, Council Chairman.

Orthodox Thoughts from Theo, the Parish Possum

Most Christians are somewhat familiar with the process used by the Roman Catholic church to declare someone a saint. In the Orthodox Church, when clergy or lay people recognize and honor a virtuous person, his or her name may be brought to the attention of a bishop for “glorification.”

This usually results in a lengthy investigation. There is no “three miracle” requirement in connection with a candidate for sainthood. Assuming the investigation is satisfactory, the name of the proposed saint is submitted to the Holy Synod of bishops of that bishop’s Orthodox Church. If the Holy Synod approves the new saint, icons of the saint will be written, and liturgical services are composed. The saint’s feast day is then established, and the other Orthodox churches are notified that they may include the new saint in their calendars. In the Orthodox Church, each autocephalous (independent) Orthodox Church has the authority to approve someone for glorification. In the United States, only the Orthodox Church in America (OCA) is autocephalous, and the glorification decision elsewhere is, therefore, made at the patriarchal level in the Russian, Greek and Antiochian churches. The OCA glorified St. Raphael of Brooklyn and, most recently, Matushka Olga, an Alaskan Native American. Blessed Seraphim (Rose) is currently being considered for glorification by the Russian Orthodox Church Outside Russia (ROCOR). We should all be on the lookout for saints. They are among us—Theo
