St. Nina, the Enlightener of the Georgians

Nina was a relative of St. George the Great Martyr and Juvenal, the Patriarch of Jerusalem. Her parents belonged to the nobility in Cappadocia and since they both were tonsured in the monastic state, Nina was educated under the tutelage of Patriarch Juvenal. Hearing about the people of Georgia, the virgin Nina, from an early age, desired to go to Georgia and to baptize the Georgians. The All-Holy Mother of God appeared to Nina and promised to take her to this land. When our Lord opened the way, the young Nina, indeed, traveled to Georgia where, in a short period of time, she gained the love of the Georgian people. Nina succeeded in baptizing the Georgian Emperor Mirian, his wife Nana and their son Bakar, who, later on, zealously assisted in Nina's missionary work. During her lifetime, Nina traveled throughout Georgia, mainly to convert the entire nation to the Faith of Christ, exactly at the time of the terrible persecution of the Christians at the hands of Emperor Diocletian. Having rested from her many labors, Nina died in the Lord in the year 335 A.D. Her body is entombed in the Cathedral Church in Mtskheta. She worked many miracles during her life and after her death.

Leavetaking of the Theophany of Our Lord and Saviour
Jesus Christ

Welcome!

To Our Guests:

While we are not yet in formal inter-communion with other faith traditions, we have much respect for their rites of worship and sanctuaries of prayer. In our tradition, Holy Communion is open only to those Orthodox Christians who are in good standing with the Church and have prepared themselves by prayer, fasting and a recent confession. Please do not be offended by this if you are not an Orthodox Christian or in good standing with the Church. We welcome you to our church and invite you to receive a blessing and partake of the blessed bread at the end of the Divine Liturgy.

In our tradition... the church temple is a house of prayer. Upon entering it, please refrain from unnecessary conversation before, during and after church services, most especially during the Divine Liturgy from the time of the consecration of the Gifts until the last person has received the Eucharist. At the end of the Divine Liturgy, please come quietly forward to receive a piece of the antidoron and exit the church temple without talking. During coffee hour in the Church Hall is the appropriate place to exchange personal greetings and converse with one another. May God bless your reverence and piety.

Epistle Reading: Ephesians 4:7-13

Gospel Reading: John 4:12-17

Saints of the Day

Leave-Taking of, and Sunday after, the Theophany of Christ; Holy fathers slain at Sinai and Raithu; Virgin-martyr Agnes; Venerable Theodoulos, son of Neilos the Wise of Sinai; Nina, equal-to-the-Apostles and enlightener of Georgia; Sabbas, first archbishop of Serbia.

A Message from the Parish Council

Dear parishioners, as we plan for a new year, we ask you to consider the level of your commitment to St. Basil. We face increasing property insurance premiums and higher medical insurance costs for Father Peter and his family. In addition, we need more financial and human resources to build up our parish if we are going to give birth to a Northshore mission. Let us pray to the Lord for guidance as we make our pledge to further the ministry of St. Basil—Rob Booms, Council Chairman.

Orthodox Thoughts from Theo, the Parish Possum

The year 1054 will be remembered for the “Great Schism” between the Eastern and Western Christian churches when the Pope excommunicated the Patriarch of Constantinople. The split was, in fact, a long time in coming. For at least six centuries, the Western and Eastern churches had developed cultural and theological differences. There were arguments over whether the Patriarch of Rome or the Patriarch of Constantinople is “first among equals.” There was also a dispute about the “filioque clause” in the Nicene-Constantinopolitan Creed. The Eastern church insisted that the Holy Spirit descended only from God the Father and not, as the West contended, from both the Father and the Son. Indeed, the Roman prelate believed that he could alter the ancient Creed without the consent of an ecumenical council. In later years, the Roman church went on to declare that the Pope is infallible on theological matters and that the Theotokos, not just Christ, was immaculately conceived. The Roman church decreed the celibacy of clergy and the existence of purgatory which are not shared by the Orthodox church. After the Crusaders brutally sacked Constantinople in 1204, there was little love lost between the East and West. Sadly, there was never a reconciliation and no ecumenical council to reunify the churches has been possible. While we await the second coming of our Lord Jesus Christ, let us not dwell on our differences with our Roman brothers and sisters but rejoice in much of the ancient faith that we hold in common—Theo.
