St. Andrew, Prince of Smolensk

Out of love for Christ, Andrew abandoned the glory and honor of the world, hid himself in a monastery and there, disguised and unknown, served as a sacristan for 30 years. He peacefully entered into rest in the Lord in 1390; his miracle-working relics were found in 1540.

Welcome!

To Our Guests:

While we are not yet in formal inter-communion with other faith traditions, we have much respect for their rites of worship and sanctuaries of prayer. In our tradition, Holy Communion is open only to those Orthodox Christians who are in good standing with the Church and have prepared themselves by prayer, fasting and a recent confession. Please do not be offended by this if you are not an Orthodox Christian or in good standing with the Church. We welcome you to our church and invite you to receive a blessing and partake of the blessed bread at the end of the Divine Liturgy.

In our tradition... the church temple is a house of prayer. Upon entering it, please refrain from unnecessary conversation before, during and after church services, most especially during the Divine Liturgy from the time of the consecration of the Gifts until the last person has received the Eucharist. At the end of the Divine Liturgy, please come quietly forward to receive a piece of the antidoron and exit the church temple without talking. During coffee hour in the Church Hall is the appropriate place to exchange personal greetings and converse with one another. May God bless your reverence and piety.

Orthodox Thoughts from Theo, the Parish Possum

On November 8, the Holy Orthodox Church observes the "Synaxis of all Angels." It is a special observance to remind us that humans are sheltered by heavenly hosts.

St. Basil the Great teaches that a guardian angel is placed in charge of every believer providing we do not drive the angel away. The angel is assigned to us at birth with the special task of protecting us from harm and to guide us through life. Children are especially sheltered since their angels "always behold the face of God the Father." Matt.18:10. The Psalms assure us that an angel of the Lord surrounds those who fear God and protects them from harm." Ps. 34:7. In addition, Psalm 91:11 promises that God shall give his angels charge over us and to safeguard us. Every Sunday we pray for "an angel of peace, a faithful guide, a guardian of our souls and bodies." Most Orthodox prayer books contain a special "Canon to the Guardian Angel." We are invited, indeed urged, to have a special relationship with our guardian angel. On Mondays of every week and on November 8 of every year, let us pray in the words of the Canon:

"O Holy Angel of God, my holy Guardian, keep my life in the fear of Christ God; strengthen my mind in the true way; and wound my soul with heavenly love, so that guarded by Thee, I may obtain of Christ God the great mercy."—Theo

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Thank you to everyone who assisted in yesterday's workday.

A Fall Retreat is planned for Friday, Nov. 1 and Saturday, Nov. 2 with the Very Reverend Father John Oliver as our featured speaker. The topic is "The Indescribable Wonder of Being a Christian: the Virgin Mary as Our Guide". The first session is on Friday, Nov. 1, at 7:00 P.M. On Saturday, Nov. 2, Coffee is available from 9:30-10:00 A.M. and the second session is from 10:00-11:30 A.M. Lunch is from 11:30 A.M. until 1:00 P.M.
