Our Holy Father John the Hermit

He was the son of Juliana, a Christian woman of Armenia. While still a child, he left his mother and ran off to the desert. He was utterly aflame with love for Christ the Lord. In the beginning he entrusted himself to the guidance of a spiritual father, Pharmutius, who was so pleasing to God that an angel brought him bread every day. John later left him and withdrew into solitude. He let himself down into a dry well and lived there for a full 10 years in fasting, prayer and vigils. St. Pharmutius used to bring him some of the angel's bread, for the angel of God did not wish to bring bread to the young John in person, lest he grow proud through this, so sent it through Pharmutius his spiritual father. After 10 years of arduous asceticism in his well, St John went to the Lord and his relics revealed wonderworking power. He lived and was glorified by God and men in the 4th century.

Welcome!

To Our Guests:

While we are not yet in formal inter-communion with other faith traditions, we have much respect for their rites of worship and sanctuaries of prayer. In our tradition, Holy Communion is open only to those Orthodox Christians who are in good standing with the Church and have prepared themselves by prayer, fasting and a recent confession. Please do not be offended by this if you are not an Orthodox Christian or in good standing with the Church. We welcome you to our church and invite you to receive a blessing and partake of the blessed bread at the end of the Divine Liturgy.

As Orthodox Christians it is always appropriate to stand (still) at the following times: the beginning and ending of all divine services, during a censuring of any kind, when the Holy Gospel is being read or when the homily is given, when others are receiving Holy Communion, during a blessing, e.g., "Peace be to all." Likewise, if you arrive at church during the reading of an epistle, gospel or the homily, please remain in the narthex until the homily is finished, then quietly seat yourself. Of course, if you have physical limitations, exceptions are understood.

Epistle Reading: Hebrews 9:11-14

Gospel Reading: St. Mark 10:32-45

Spiritual Counsels...

Be not envious of evil men, nor desire to be with them; for their minds devise violence, and their lips talk of mischief. – Proverbs 24:1, 2

Orthodox Thoughts from Theo, the Parish Possum

St. Thalassios (commemorated on May 20) was the abbot of a Libyan monastery during the 7th century. His writings are found in Volume Two of the new edition of The Philokalia. A friend of St. Maximos the Confessor, he wrote about the difficulty of living a spiritual life. This powerful prayer by him seems very helpful for Orthodox Christians during Great

Lent:

“Christ, Master of all, free us from all these destructive passions and the thoughts born of them. For Thy sake we came into being, so that we might delight in the paradise which Thou hast planted and in which Thou hast placed us. We brought our present disgrace upon ourselves, preferring destruction to the delights of blessedness. We have paid for this, for we have exchanged eternal life for death. O Master, as once Thou hast looked on us, look on us now; as Thou becamest man, save all of us. For Thou camest to save us who were lost. Do not exclude us from the company of those who are being saved. Raise up our souls and save our bodies, cleansing us from all impurity. Break the fetters of the passions that constrain us, as once Thou hast broken the ranks of the impure demons. Free us from their tyranny, so that we may worship Thee alone, the eternal light, having risen from the dead and dancing with the angels in the blessed, eternal and indissoluble dance. Amen.”

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Meatfare Week began on Monday, Feb. 16. From that date until PASCHA it is our tradition to refrain from eating meat and meat products. From Pure Monday, Feb. 23, we observe the traditional fasting discipline of Great and Holy Lent (no meat, poultry, eggs, dairy, fish, alcohol and oil) during the entire Great Fast, which lasts from Pure Monday through Great and Holy Saturday. On Saturdays and Sundays, however, alcohol and oil are allowed, except on Great and Holy Saturday when no oil is permitted. Fish, alcohol and oil are permitted on the Feast of the Annunciation (March 25) and Palm Sunday (April 5).

The Sacrament of Holy Confession is good for the health and salvation of the soul and body. For long-term, good, physical health, regular visits to the family doctor are appropriate. Likewise, care for our souls is a necessity. If it is your desire to receive the Eucharist at Great and Holy PASCHA, then please make every effort to care for your soul and have confession at least once during Great Lent.

Lenten potluck meals shall be served after Presanctified Liturgies on Wednesday evenings during Great Lent.

On Sunday, April 5th, an Archdiocese-wide second collection shall be taken up for the Patriarchate of Antioch. Donations by check should be made payable to “St. Basil Church.” On the memo line, please write, “Patriarchate Collection”. May God bless your generosity.

An Easter Egg Hunt for the little people in our parish shall be held after Liturgy on Palm Sunday, April 5th. For more information, please see Pam Nugent.

Our annual spring cleaning of the church hall is planned for Wednesday, April 8th, following the conclusion of Presanctified Liturgy at 9 A.M. and Thursday, April 9th, following the conclusion of Vespereal Divine Liturgy at 10 A.M. Please join us at one of these times. A TO-DO list is posted on the bulletin board across from the kitchen in the church hall. Please take a look; there is much to do. For additional information, please see Tania Russell or Yazmin Incaprera.

Twelve dozen boiled, red eggs are needed for the Paschal Liturgy. If you would like to bring one or two dozen, please place them in the bowl provided on the auxiliary table at the front of the church temple prior to the beginning of the Paschal services. Thank you.

Today’s Coffee Hour: Potluck. Thank you. Next Week: Team 1.

Next meeting for The Art of Myrrh Bearing will be May 2nd at 11 am. This meeting will be held in the church hall of St. Basil’s. This meeting will start part 3 MYRRHBEARERS IN ACTION. We will focus on the Introduction on p. 165 through Herman of Alaska ending on p. 234. June 6th will conclude our book study, time and place will be announced prior to that meeting. Please see Tania Russell for more information.

Our Littlest Members

Christ said, “Let the little children come to Me, and do not forbid them; for such is the kingdom of heaven” (Matthew 19:14). In the Orthodox Church, we embrace and welcome our littlest parishioners to join in the Divine Liturgy. They are our future and we want them raised from birth involved in the liturgical experience.

While generally, silence and stillness are valued in worship, the noise of children, especially if they are playfully making noise or expressing themselves, is often viewed as a part of the joyful and vibrant nature of Orthodox worship. It is considered "Holy Noise." The beautiful, resonating sound of our children's cooing or laughter is warming to our hearts.

However, if your child should become fussy, out of control, or inconsolable, please be respectful to those around you and leave the Nave to provide comfort for our little member. They can be brought outside or to St. Basil's Comfort Room. Once consoled and in good spirits, return with our sweet parishioner to resume the liturgy.

Please also remember that there is NO FOOD allowed in church and that includes baby formula (bottle-feeding) and snacks. If our little one is hungry, please bring them to the St. Basil's Comfort Room to feed them. The exception to that is our breastfed little ones. Breastfeeding during worship services is acceptable, but with a focus on discretion and modesty.

To our parents of little ones, we join you in loving prayer and support as you raise the next generation of Orthodox believers. GOD BLESS YOU!
