The Holy Martyr Archil [Archilios] Ii, King of Georgia

Archil was the son of King Stephen and the grandson of the great Georgian King Wakahtang Gorgaslan. King Archil, a great Christian and a defender of Christianity, was tortured by the Muslims and beheaded for Christ on March 20, 744 A.D. He was 80 years old when he suffered for the Lord and took up habitation in blessed eternity.

The 3rd Sunday after Pentecost

Welcome!

To Our Guests:

While we are not yet in formal inter-communion with other faith traditions, we have much respect for their rites of worship and sanctuaries of prayer. In our tradition, Holy Communion is open only to those Orthodox Christians who are in good standing with the Church and have prepared themselves by prayer, fasting and a recent confession. Please do not be offended by this if you are not an Orthodox Christian or in good standing with the Church. We welcome you to our church and invite you to receive a blessing and partake of the blessed bread at the end of the Divine Liturgy.

*The weather is always very warm during the summer months. While we need to dress comfortably because of this please remember that shorts or above-the-knee attire, strapless garments, "spaghetti" strap garments, sleeveless or "tanktop" type garments, and tight-fitting, open or low-cut garments are not appropriate, especially for men, women and teenagers. It has always been our tradition to dress modestly and without drawing attention to oneself. Thank you.

Spiritual Counsels...

If you say, "Behold, we did not know this," does not He Who weighs the heart perceive it? Does not He Who keeps watch over your soul know it, and will He not requite man according to his work? – Prov. 24:12

Orthodox Thoughts from Theo, the Parish Possum

Most Orthodox people know about the "Great Schism of 1054." This is when the Roman Catholic Church and the Eastern Orthodox church went their separate ways. The main reason for the schism was a dispute over the Roman patriarch's authority over the Eastern church. He insisted on his supremacy over the Eastern patriarchs. There were, however, other fundamental differences between the Eastern and Western churches such as the Eastern church's objection to Rome's addition of the filioque clause in the Nicene Creed (the claim that the Holy Spirit descended from the Father and the Son, not just from the Father). Mutual suspicion and theological rivalry between the churches continued during the next 400 years. It led to bloody confrontations between the churches during the Crusades when the Pope's private army devastated Mt. Athos. Monks who refused to convert to Catholicism were either killed or sold as slaves. Happily, while theological differences between East and West remain, Rome and Constantinople have entered constructive dialogue in recent years. In 1965, the churches lifted their mutual excommunications of 1054. In November 2025, on the 1700th anniversary of the Nicene Creed, Pope Leo XIV and Ecumenical Patriarch Bartholomew met and signed a declaration affirming their commitment to a path toward full communion. The faith leaders urged all clergy and laypeople to pray and work together in obedience to our Lord's prayer "that all may be one...so that the world may believe." Thanks be to God. —Theo

Our Littlest Members

Christ said, "Let the little children come to Me, and do not forbid them; for such is the kingdom of heaven" (Matthew 19:14). In the Orthodox Church, we embrace and welcome our littlest parishioners to join in the Divine Liturgy. They are our future and we want them raised from birth involved in the liturgical experience.

While generally, silence and stillness are valued in worship, the noise of children, especially if they are playfully making noise or expressing themselves, is often viewed as a part of the joyful and vibrant nature of Orthodox worship. It is considered "Holy Noise." The beautiful, resonating sound of our children's cooing or laughter is warming to our hearts.

However, if your child should become fussy, out of control, or inconsolable, please be respectful to those around you and leave the Nave to provide comfort for our little member. They can be brought outside or to St. Basil's Comfort Room. Once consoled and in good spirits, return with our sweet parishioner to resume the liturgy.

Please also remember that there is NO FOOD allowed in church and that includes baby formula (bottle-feeding) and snacks. If our little one is hungry, please bring them to the St. Basil's Comfort Room to feed them. The exception to that is our breastfed little ones. Breastfeeding during worship services is acceptable, but with a focus on discretion and modesty.

To our parents of little ones, we join you in loving prayer and support as you raise the next generation of Orthodox believers. GOD BLESS YOU!
